

Kupugani Campership Criteria and Application Information

The Kupugani Scholarship Fund strives to be generous and make camp attainable for all campers, regardless of ability to pay. Camperships are available to assist families who may not otherwise be able to finance Camp Kupugani. In general, campership consideration will be given to any family that expresses need and has a gross annual income of less than $80,000. - Family is unable to otherwise afford for their child to attend Camp Kupugani, as shown by their submission of income and expense information on the Kupugani Scholarship Fund Campership Application

At this time, if the requested amount is granted, Camp Kupugani will register your camper; if the amount granted is less than requested, your deposit can be returned in full. The Campership application is on the reverse side of this page. All information for financial assistance is kept strictly confidential. Camperships are not guaranteed and may be issued in any dollar amount.

All parent/guardians must submit a completed camp registration form, proof of income documents, and a refundable $573.75 deposit by April 30, 2022. First-time campers are required to submit a recommendation letter from a teacher, coach, or community leader who can speak to their character, social-emotional skills, and contributions to building diverse and inclusive communities.

Returning campers are required to submit a personal essay or video narrative demonstrating how Kupugani has helped them to build diverse and inclusive communities at home, school, and/or elsewhere.

All campership applicants may be invited for a 10 to 15-minute phone/video call where they will be asked to share more about why they want to attend camp this summer and what they hope to bring back to their communities.

All campership recipients must submit a post-camp letter of thanks to our donors.
